How They Spend the Day

Afterword

Thank you for reading "Yamanai Fukou no Owaresekata". This manga "Gosan no Heart" -> "Owaranai Fukou Ni Tsuite Hanashi" -> "Gosan de Fukou na Koibana" is the continuation of the Gosan series. When this series was first published, I worked under the assumption that it would be a standalone piece, so the chronological order eventually became hard to understand. Sorry about that.

Even so, if I were to say why I eventually wrote a sequel for an old piece, it's because I was driven by nostalgia, and wanted the characters to stay alive in everyone's hearts by shedding some light on them. Writing Caste Heaven all this time was also tiring.

In the unexpected year of 2020, I wanted to write a bright manga, and "Gosan no Heart"'s story about the two brother couples quickly came out.

To Libre, who listened to my unreasonable requests and gave me a place to publish this, I give great thanks. Thank you very much. Also, to those who have been following this series for a long time, thank you very much.

A romantic manga illustration featuring a man and a woman in a car. The man, with spiky brown hair and a serious expression, looks down at the woman. The woman, with long dark hair and a gentle smile, looks up at him. They are holding hands. The background shows the interior of a car with colorful, blurred lights from the outside.

I was just dragged into this.

That's gross, Takayuki-san.

What? Isn't it obvious that it's cosplay?

So cute!
